

Bronenosec wins Club Swan 50 Valencia Cup regatta

The team took part in the regatta and held a training camp.

In Valencia, the Club Swan 50 Valencia Cup regatta was held on the basis of King Marine. Competitions were held from November 19th to 22nd. Four teams took part in them: Bronenosec Team, King Marine Team, Uteka, team Spanish and Tenaz Team.

The regatta consisted of two racing days with nine races. Bronenosec won against King Marine in a hard fight. Team Tenaz came third. Bronenosec scored 12 points, King Marine scored 19 points and Team Tenaz scored 20 points.

«We had two great racing days», says Polina Lyubomirova, helmsman at Bronenosec in the Club Swan50 class. – We trained mainly in light winds, and on the final racing day the wind increased significantly. Great competition. We were happy to take part in it. We look forward to new training and racing. Valencia is an excellent place for competitions and training camps. We have completed the regatta and training in a great mood».
